“Headgear in Girls’ Lacrosse: Is There Need for A Change?”

Our presentation will discuss the evolving debate over whether headgear should be required in girls' lacrosse. We will present findings from: (1) a state-level survey on current headgear use and concussions in girls' lacrosse and (2) focus groups with stakeholders (i.e., healthcare providers, researchers, officials, coaches, parents, and players).

Chronic Brain Injury Program | cbi.osu.edu

Friday, May 10, 2024, 9:30AM-10:30AM | In Person | Biomedical Research Tower 105

1.0 CME credits are available. Please contact pissocra.4@osu.edu for sign up for credits.

If you need an accommodation to access the presentation or presentation materials, email cbi@osu.edu.