Clinical Arts Seminar Series (CLASS)
Presented by Chronic Brain Injury Program

The Future of Medical and Health Humanities and Arts

Julia Hawkins, PhD | Associate Professor | Department of Classics
Julia’s areas of interest include Latin poetry, ancient medicine and Hellenistic culture in Rome. She is currently preparing a monograph on medical imagery in Augustan poetry.

In her presentation, Julia will provide an overview of the diverse programming in Medical and Health Humanities and Arts (MHHA) at OSU.

A discussion will follow about how the university, and in particular, the Global Arts and Humanities Discovery Themes can best foster growth.
