World Food Day @ Ohio State

Healthy Diets for a Zero Hunger World
A three-day series of events to learn about food security and raise awareness about local and sustainable food resources.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Location</th>
<th>Event Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Wednesday, Oct. 16 | 12 noon - 2 pm | W. 18th Ave. Plaza          | Food Fair
Join us for an opportunity to learn about food resources on campus, highlighting local and sustainable food and featuring food demonstrations and student clubs.                                                                 |
| Thursday, Oct. 17 | 10 am - 2 pm | Thompson Library Room 165    | Food Talks
Faculty, staff and students present rapid-fire flash talks on food system research, followed by a keynote address by a local food entrepreneur. Lunch is provided. RSVP required. |
| Friday, Oct. 18  | 10 am and 2 pm | Waterman Farm                | Farm Tours
Did you know there is a 1,000 acre farm two miles from main campus? Come see the diversity of Ohio agriculture and learn about the different growing projects. Apple picking and samples of local produce included. RSVP required. |

Learn more and RSVP at discovery.osu.edu/world-food-day-2019

Sponsored by:
College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences
University Libraries
Sustainability Institute at Ohio State
Initiative for Food and AgriCultural Transformation